Joff Elphick Talk: Crayfish on the Lawn

As a student, Joff worked for Mary Keen while studying horticulture at Pershore under Chris Beardshaw. His experience includes working for Raymond Blanc, The National Trust Gardens Department and as Assistant Head Gardener at Rosemary Verey's Barnsley House.

He now looks after 3 gardens in The Cotswolds and writes weekly blogs. He is giving us an interesting multimedia talk about his work as a professional gardener entitled Crayfish on the Lawn.
